Sea views and space designed for comfort. Some properties stand out for the way every space has been thoughtfully considered. Here, space is not simply about square metres, but about creating a comfortable and effortless way of living. This apartment in La Recoleta, located in the coastal area of Punta Prima, brings together a combination of features that rarely come together so harmoniously: a south-facing orientation, open sea views, a generous terrace and a well-designed layout that offers both independence and privacy. Situated on the second floor, this beautifully presented apartment features a bright and spacious living area. The lounge, dining area and open-plan...(Ask for More Details!)
