This large detached villa enjoys an enviable position in the heart of Ciudad Quesada. It also occupies an enormous plot, offering plenty of outdoor space and privacy. The south-facing property features a truly impressive private swimming pool with feature fountain. Next to the pool, a summer house creates a fantastic space for cooking and entertaining. This could provide additional accommodation for visiting family or friends. The property also benefits from a garage with a roof terrace above. From here, you can enjoy lovely views to the lakes. At the front of the villa, a huge glazed terrace creates an additional living area. ...(Ask for More Details!)
