Old finca completely renovated with swimming pool and original bodega. This old finca is over 200 years old and has been completely renovated, while keeping its original character. The old farmhouse has been divided into 2 parts. It is therefore a semi-detached, but the layout ensures that the finca is very private. The finca has more than 300m<sup>2</sup> of living space and includes an entrance hall with a bedroom on one side and a bathroom on the other side. After the hallway, you have a living/dining room with a wood burner. Next is the traditional kitchen with a large pantry (this one was a stable and is still with original elements from that period). From the kitchen, you have access to a patio (courtyard, nicely laid out). On the other side is the bodega with its original press. The bodega has not yet been renovated bu...
