In the very popular residential area of Laguna Beach Resort, Los Balcones, you will now find this beautiful upper bungalow with modern floor plan and lavish material choices. The house was completed in 2019 and is still practically like new. A very easy to maintain residence with among other things like AC & fiber. The generous living space is made for the large family as well as those who appreciate airy spaces. Upon entering the home, you will find social gathering areas where the open and spacious kitchen interacts with the living room in a family atmosphere. The two bedrooms are bright and spacious with good storage. Both bedrooms are directly adjacent to the two bathrooms. The bathrooms are modern with a luxurious feel. From the living room you reach the terrace where you have space for a dining tabl...
