Have you ever had the dream of waking up to the view of one of Costa Blanca's most beautiful golf courses? Now's your chance. Now we have the honour to present this first line bungalow with unbeatable views. Here you will live in a corner bungalow with a large plot, close to the association's community pool and overlooking one of the region's best golf courses. The home itself can be described as a true dream home. The cleverly planned 105 sqm offers an incredibly pleasant balance where the spaces are designed down to the smallest detail. There is room for ordinary everyday leisure and fantastic celebrations. The house has a classic exterior and an interior that is modern and stylish. The entrance floor is characterised by open spaces where the kitchen and living room set the social tone of the house. With...
