Enjoy a life of luxury in beautiful Bolnuevo by purchasing these two opulent semi-detached villas, both with separate entrances. Each villa comes with its own private swimming pool, so you can swim in the Spanish sunshine whilst admiring breathtaking sea views all from the privacy of your own garden. One of the pools even comes with a porch with an outside kitchen area and BBQ, so you can cook and dine al-fresco while you're getting dried off. Conveniently, the pool area of the other property has access to the guest apartment which has a kitchen along with a toilet. The owner currently rents the properties out during the summer months of July and August and receives EUR 12,000 in total. This demonstrates the versatility of these properties - whether you're looking for a home of your own or to invest, these stun...
