EVERY NOW AND THEN, an opportunity comes along that defies belief - this is that moment. Our newest partner-developer has asked that we promote their unique near-bespoke villa, sitting within five acres of Spanish wine-producing countryside. Three different design templates have been given approval, with the buyer choosing and adapting one of them to produce the most fantastic custom peaceful home in the sun. Five-acre working vineyard outside your home. Interestingly, the developer's daughter (Lieve) collaborates with a local winery (Barahonda) to harvest, produce, and promote the wine on behalf of the lucky owner. The Monastrell grapes produce a full-bodied, richly-flavoured deep red (called El Calvo), making them highly sought-after by wine enthusiasts. Olives are also produced, but grapes are the main crop.
