This top floor apartment offers an excellent opportunity to enjoy the coastal lifestyle of Costa Blanca. The kitchen, living room and bathroom have been renovated in a classically elegant style, combining a modern appearance with practicality. The compact layout includes everything needed for comfortable beachside living. Upon entering, two bedrooms are located to the left, both offering ample storage space. The main bedroom also features a well designed storage solution where suitcases can be neatly stored. The living room and kitchen form an open and unified space that creates a bright and welcoming atmosphere. The modern renovated bathroom is equipped with a shower and a washing machine in Northern European style. The apartment also includes a small glazed balcony that can be used according to...
