Welcome to a bright and well-planned 69 m<sup>2</sup> apartment in the popular La Mata, where the proximity to the sea defines everyday life. This home offers two bedrooms and one bathroom, making it perfect as a holiday home, permanent residence, or a smart investment. The apartment enjoys plenty of natural light thanks to several windows and an open feel between the kitchen and living room. The layout is practical and inviting, making it easy to relax or spend time with friends and family. From the living room, you access the balcony, where you are greeted by a lovely sea view that feels like a living postcard. It's the perfect place to enjoy your morning coffee, a sunny breakfast, or a peaceful moment with good company. The property is modern and efficiently designed, making the most of every square meter...
