Located in the secure gated development of Residencial Villa Sol in Catral, this stylish townhouse offers modern living with generous space both inside and out. The home provides two well-proportioned double bedrooms, a light-filled living and dining room, and a sleek open-concept kitchen designed for everyday comfort. A major advantage is the expansive basement level (approx. 30 m²), which receives natural daylight and is currently arranged as a second living area. This flexible space could just as easily serve as a guest accommodation, office, hobby room, fitness area, or entertainment space. Upstairs, the main bathroom features a contemporary walk-in shower, while an additional guest WC on the ground floor adds everyday practicality. At the top of the property, a private rooftop terra...
