Welcome to this charming ground-floor bungalow in popular Torre La Mata – a cozy home where you can enjoy the Spanish climate and a relaxed lifestyle, close to both the sea and everyday amenities. As you approach the property, you are welcomed by a gate leading into the sunny front terrace. This is a wonderful space to start the day with a cup of coffee in the morning sun, enjoy long outdoor breakfasts, or relax with a book in the peaceful afternoons. The terrace also offers plenty of space for dinners with family and friends during the warm evenings and quickly becomes a natural extension of the home. A few steps up, you enter through the front door into a bright and inviting living room with an open and social atmosphere. Next to it is the kitchen, which is open to the living area, making it ea...
