This detached 3 bedroom, 1 bathroom villa is ideally positioned in a quiet cul-de-sac and offers fantastic potential for both permanent living and holiday use. The property features a spacious lounge and dining area, fitted kitchen with separate utility room, and a glazed terrace perfect for year-round enjoyment. Outside, the villa benefits from a generous plot with ample space to add a private swimming pool, a car port, and a large separate garden room offering additional storage, workspace, or guest accommodation potential. The underbuild also provides excellent scope for further development or extra living space. Located in a peaceful residential setting, this villa combines privacy, space, and endless possibilities in a desirable location. With some modernisation this can be an absolute Gem of a Villa.
