We are delighted to present this beautiful detached villa with private swimming pool, set within a small community of villa's in Ciudad Quesada. The property has been extensively upgraded by the current owners to give a warm and welcoming feeling. As you enter into the plot, the private pool is to the left, which has easy access as well as a cascade. The garden is fully tiled, with one lovely aspect being a conservatory with glass curtains, opening to the front and rear, which provides extra living space especially in the winter. To the back of the property is another part of the garden offering two separate seating area's and a storage area. There is another storage area which also houses the pool pump. Access to the property is via the front door or a side door. From the side door is the kitchen, which works per...
